Leadership is a choice, not a position.

Use anonymous feedback to create a club action plan.

Winning is when preparation and opportunity meet.

Follow the crowd, and you'll never get ahead of the crowd; charge ahead, and you'll go places no one has reached before.

Don't let your fears be bigger than your dreams.

People don't plan to fail; they fail to plan.

What you are is how much you contribute to others.

The best shortcut is doing it right the first time.

The greatest tragedy in life isn't that it ends too soon, but that many of us put off living without any regrets.

Reward excellent failure; punish mediocre successes.

Success is the ability to spot and develop talent.

Even when we run our meeting right, it is still pretty ordinary.

Clubs should be idea-lead and member-oriented.

This is the age of the never-satisfied customer; we are in the age of control by customers.

Lame excuses cannot be tolerated.

We have to do the right thing for our members, no matter what the cost or sacrifice.

It isn't our guests who are not membership-worthy; it's our club that is not membership-worthy.

Our prospects have the money to spend, but nobody wants to take it.

In our Toastmasters Club, we are a cause, not a business.

What we are doing is as important as curing cancer.

"When you are good to others, you are best to yourself." - Benjamin Franklin

To be happy for an hour, take a nap;

To be happy for a day, go fishing;

To be happy for a year, inherit a fortune;

To be happy for a lifetime, help people.
